

Book Review

The title of this book is Mistress of Mellyn. It was written by Victoria Holt.

The setting takes place in Cornwall between the years 1850-1860.

The plot centers around whether or not Martha will be able to have Alvean as her friend.

The climax comes when Martha becomes Alvean's friend.

An interesting incident was the time when Martha saw a light in Connan's late wife's room.

The book is easy reading because the author writes so well.

Chatter Box

Well, here I go again for the school year 1972-1973. I hope I don't hurt too many people.

Lunch is the best time at this school other than 3:10.

Have you noticed that many of the girls wear trousers? Some of them look very stylish.

What boy doesn't know when to stop talking?

Just ask her--she'll tell you that she is beautiful!

Collecting locker combinations seems to be a hobby for a certain person.

Everytime I look at her she laughs! O'well, laugh and the world laughs with you--or something like that.

Lb doesn't like Rh?

Who was the boy in the girls' locker room?

What about SC and HG? Was it TR?

Who has pretty eyes, RC?

LC hates ??

?I has nothing to do with it?
