Faces

People that I meet and pass
In the city's broken roar,
Faces that I lose so soon
And never found before,

Do you know how much you tell
In the meeting of our eyes,
How ashamed I am, and sad
To have pierced your poor disguise?

Secrets rushing without sound
Crying from your hiding places-
Let me go, I cannot bear
The sorrow of the passing faces.

People in the restless street,
Can it be, oh, can it be
In the meeting of our eyes
That you know as much of me?

Drama Club

Through the kindness of Berlin's Entertainment Center, high schoolers made an impact on local theatrical circles in 1974. Bill Rossey put together an evening of three one-acters: Shaw's PASSION, POISON, PETRIFICATION; Compton's THEN; and Ionesco's THE LEADER during April.

These shows differed from the usual high school drama by combining Adult-Teenage talent. Thus both groups came to understand and learn from each other in a common community effort.

Ms. Woodruff furthered dramatic beginnings at BAHS by entering twenty-five students in the USDESEA speech contest held in Wiesbaden in March.

Junior High Activities
One's high school education takes place in the classroom, but after-school activities also play an important role in learning. Some students in Berlin American High School gained knowledge and satisfaction by forming a committee to raise money for the United Nations International Children's Fund.

We have worked together on several projects such as selling coffee to the University of Maryland students and collecting money at the PX and movie theaters. This money will be sent to UNICEF headquarters where it will be decided what country needs the aid. Many other fund-raising activities are planned for the spring in order to support the organization.

Cubs Football "73"

Although our football team never recorded in the winning column, we developed a reputation for never giving up. We hustled, we fought, we sweated like the other teams. We were bruised, harassed, yelled at and yelled for. We were confronted with all the formalities of sportsmanship. Though our score was always the least, our strength of spirit was greater.

Ad Infinitum

People 1974 -- the theme of this yearbook. In the past few pages we have attempted to show you some aspects of people, how they work, where they live, what they eat and how they play. There has been pain, sadness, joy, anxiety, laughter and complacency during the past year. There were jokes and homework, bomb scares and tests, football games and music festivals. Throughout it all people were doing their own thing.

In the scenes presented throughout this book, one sees a variety of activities representing somewhat different aspects of human behavior. However, no matter how we try, we cannot capture the atmosphere surrounding them. There exists about them an aura which is always just out of reach. But then, we did not want to catch it and pin it down, as a butterfly is caught and pinned to a board. The spirit of the moment is lost and memories are made of this.

We shall all have memories of Berlin American High School, be they bad or be they good. We hope this yearbook will serve its purpose of bringing back that "spirit of the moment."
