Many Seasons Have Passed Since 1946 . . .

In 1946, the Berlin American School was founded in Dahlem. Before 1964, when the high school was built, the Thomas A. Roberts school served grades 1-12. Presently, the T.A.R. School is attended only by children up through sixth grade. Grades seven through twelve now have their own facility: Berlin American High School.

For 39 years it has been one of the main facets of life in the Berlin American community. During this same period, the students and their families have watched the amazing transformation of Berlin from a war-torn city to its re-establishment as the cultural and social center of Germany.

FALL

We've Only Just Begun

We've only just begun
To live.

White-lace promises,
A kiss for luck and
We're on our way.

And yes, we've just begun
Sharing horizons that are new to us.
Watching the signs along the way.
Talking it over, just the two of us.
Working together day to day.
And when the evening comes, we smile.
So much of a life ahead,
We'll find a place where there's a place to grow.
And, yes, we've just begun.
Before the rising sun, we fly.
So many roads to choose.
We start out walking and learn to run.
And, yes, we've just begun.

BERLIN'S SEASONS

SHOWCASE OF THE WEST

West Berlin is the biggest city in Germany, both in size and population, and is the largest industrial center between Paris and Moscow. Gleaming buildings, thriving industries, and a democratic government make it a showcase of the west.

At Right: East German soldier goose-stepping in front of East Berlin's Memorial to the Victims of Fascism and Militarism.

AND FACES ARE MANY—

AN ISLAND CITY

West Berlin lies deep within the German Democratic Republic, a hundred miles from the Federal Republic of Germany. Not a constituent part of West Germany, it remains under the protection of France, Great Britain, and the United States, who honor the four-power agreements that divided Berlin into four sectors.

The fourth sector has become the capital of the GDR and is separated from the rest of the city by a barrier of concrete guard towers, manned by border troops at firing range intervals; vehicle traps, land mines, beds of upturned spikes, barbed wire, vicious dogs, electric fences, flood lights, and trip alarms complete the 'security zone'. Few people dare to attempt crossing the 'antifascist protective barrier', as it is called in the east.

Above: In the capitol city, the allegiance of the young remains the hope of socialist East Berlin's future.

Berlin has 50 square miles of lakes, parks, and woodlands with deer and wild boar, the largest green area of any city in the world.

"It was the best of times and the worst of times," quoted Charles Dickens. This saying can certainly apply to Juniors. We have had to make some of the biggest decisions of our lives during this year. Besides making decisions, we have realized how little time we have left of the good old high school days without recalling all of the fun times such as the parties, the pep rallies, school trips, and of course, the exams!! We may be losing friends and teachers. But we have the memories of 1985 and 1986.

Typical Junior Weekend

Friday evening in Berlin found the student on the phone, planning the evening ahead. The web of phone calls spread out, reaching each household with a fellow classmate anxiously awaiting the arrival of the call. The call arrives, setting the teen in motion to prepare for the night ahead. "Oskar at seven." The message rings out across Berlin summoning the student body forth.

An enthusiastic group arrives at the U-Bahn station, Oskar Helena Heim. After waiting five minutes for stragglers, the crowd departs on the U-Bahn, Berlin's version of the subway system.

It's on the trip toward Wittenburg Platz that the real question surfaces, "Where are we going, guys?" Nervous glances are exchanged and three or four different places are suggested.

Since the Jazz Keller closed in spring, 1984, the Ex-tase, Club 25, Hofbrauhaus, Irish Pub, Riverboat, and the Sugar Shack have been among the most visited places. Some places close down, or turn away the over-enthusiastic crowd, but new places are always being discovered.

One destination is finally decided on and the teens move on. As the clock ticks towards twelve, the evening of fun and dancing ends, and the crowd heads home. Reaching Oskar Helena Heim, the schoolmates say their farewells, and depart until Saturday.

The Powder Puff game was dominated by the Seniors winning with a score of 14-0. There was a lot of foul play on the field but the referees were unusually fair. No tackling was permitted but that rule was not very effective as both sides disobeyed it. The Seniors had organized plays which allowed them to score two touchdowns and a two-point conversion.

The 85/86 school year was a year for new traditions. Spirit Week was shortened from five days to three days. Instead of decorating the hallways, each class decorated part of a wall in the cafeteria. This year the classes did not decorate floats, rather each class was supposed to decorate a car in which the Homecoming Princess for that grade was driven onto the football field.

Spirit Week began with Career Day on the 23rd of October. Many wore their mothers or father's military uniforms; others dressed as they would in possible future occupations. The day finished with the yearly student/faculty volleyball game.

Thursday was filled with "fun in the sun" as students came decked out in beach wear. A tug-of-war match between all the classes with the winners playing the teachers was Thursday's event.

The best day of all must have been Friday. In mass, students dressed for Punk Day, revealing their "true selves". The traditional Powder Puff football game was played at the end of the day with the seniors skunking the juniors 14-0. On the sidelines, the senior and junior guy — cheerleaders battled it out with whip-cream pies.

whip-cream pies.

The Bonfire was set ablaze at 18:30. Friends got together and showed their spirit by cheering for their class and by supporting the cheerleaders by joining in the cheers to rally the sport's teams for the big day to follow. The Bonfire Dance followed and the fun continued with good music to which everyone danced.

The volleyball games and the cross country meet filled the morning hours. The football game began at 12:00 with the Berlin Bears playing the Munich Mustangs. The Homecoming Parade of cars during half time saw Laverne Magee being crowned as queen.

After the game, everyone who planned to attend the homecoming dance went home to prepare for the special night to come. Students arrived at the Wannsee Harbor to board the Moby Dick where the dance was held. Due to foggy weather conditions, the boat was not allowed to leave the harbor. Music and conversation filled the evening with fun.

The night passed quickly, but the evening will become just a moment in a lifetime of good memories.

EIGHTY-FIVE

"FOR JUST A MOMENT"

We laughed until we had to cry and we loved right down to our last good-bye.
We were the best: I think we'll ever be just you and me
For just a moment.

We chased that dream we never found,
and sometimes we let each other down.
But the love we made, made everything alright.
We shone so bright,
For just a moment.

Time goes on
People touch and then they are gone.
But you and I will never love
again,
like we did then.

Some day when we both
reminisce,
We'll both say,
there wasn't much we missed
and through the tears,
we'll smile when we recall,
we had it all
For just a moment.

ENGLAND & IRELAND

On October 31st, 60 BAHS students boarded the duty train en route to England and Ireland.

Mr. Schmoll and Mr. Pinschmidt, who arranged the journey, did a wonderful job making sure that our eleven days were put to good use. Most of our valuable time was spent either sight seeing or traveling.

In London we visited such historic sights as Trafalgar Square, Westminster Abbey, and the London Bridge. We were also fortunate enough to see the last performance of the Chekov play "The Seagull", starring Vanessa Redgrave.

Next we went to Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of Shakespeare. While we were there, we saw the house in which he was born, the house that his wife was raised in and the graves of himself and some of his family members.

One of the highlights of the trip was the Royal Shakespeare Company's performance of Othello, starring Oscar Award winning actor Ben Kingsley.

WHAT A TRIP!

After Stratford, the group moved on through the surrealistic landscape of Wales to Ireland. There were so many interesting things to see there: St. Patrick's Cathedral, an ancient monastery, and Trinity University.

From Dublin, we went back to England to spend a 'spooky' night in Chester, a town which is supposedly inhabited by over fifty ghosts.

Before our long drive home, we stopped in London again to see the London Tower. We also stopped in Canterbury on our way.

Aside from having a great time, we all learned a lot from our experiences in England and Ireland. Looking back we can't help but think "What a trip!"

Class Of 1988

SOPHOMORES

Sec. — Treas.

This year's class of 1988 was the best so far. The class officers strived to restore a dwindling spirit with sales of Sophomore Spirit Shirts, candy grams, concessions, as well as having bake sales and a dance.

The Sophomore "movement" brought second place (a tie with the juniors) in the Homecoming wall decorating competition. Hopefully the next (and final) two years of high school will bring luck, and more opportunities to display unending school spirit!

This year's 1985 football season was a very difficult one for the BEARS. With only six returning players and mostly freshman and sophomores on the team, they had a hard time on the field but they gave it their best. They should be proud of the effort they put forth and should look forward to a better season next year.

The 1985 Berlin American High School Cross Country Team experienced a change in coaching and a change in performance. Coming from last year when beating a single team was cause for celebration, this year's male team only lost to two teams, and the girls only lost to three. The guys took 4th place out of 13 in regionals. The girls took 3rd. Three Berlin runners qualified for European Championships.

GOLF

Coach Bill Morgan

The 1985 Golf season ended on October 5th under the coaching of Bill Morgan, computer coordinator at BAHS. Overall, four matches were played against teams from all West Germany schools.

Although there were not enough players this season to complete a team, Rich Beem came in with his second consecutive championship title.

There were 50 golfers in the field when Rich took his honors again. Other members of the team were Karl Bentley, Mike Snell, Mike Spivey, Chris Houston and Travis Blaskovits. Because of the lack of players this past season, Rich Beem said that, "it wasn't as fun."

Class of '89

Ah! Gossip Hour!

The Freshman class of '89 drove to the limit this year with a surprising amount of spirit. The class officers worked hard to represent freshman and insure a fair and equal share in all school events and activities. Being the largest class in the senior high brings on many responsibilities, and this year's freshman went above and beyond the call of duty.

We've finally got it together.

Fender Bender strikes a sexy pose.

WINTER

MY OWN TIME

Walking through the snow, kicking my heels

Seems like sunlight never felt so good before

Bet you really don't know how it feels

I don't have to answer to anyone no more

Better I've never felt

Nothing to show, nothing to lose
I'm on my own

Cast your mind back not so long ago
I was always busy playing by the rules

Bet you thought I really didn't know

You were double dealing now you're back at school

Something you didn't learn

Faith in myself gives me the strength to Carry on

I'll do what I want to anyway

I'll do what I want

And I'll do it in my own time

Don't give me that same old pack of lies

I'll tell you the story how it really is

You think you always had me under ties?

Someone better tell you that the table's turned

Getting your fingers burned, how does it feel?

I'll do what I want to anyway

I'll do what I want

And I'll do it in my own time

Time is on my side again

And one thing I intend

Is to do it in my own time

SENIORS QUOTE

Cordula LeBeau — Taking life too seriously can make you into a basket case. Good luck to the class of 1987. Thank you mom, dad, and Pat for always being there for me I love you.

Karrie Kotcher — We are so young
Each moment of our lives is precious
Whether joy or sorrow

Good luck class of '87

Linnell White — Height is something I don't have, but I try to give everything my best shot.
I love you mom and dad and Dave, thanks for being there whenever I needed you.
To Brian; I love you always; thank you for caring so much about me.

Kristy O'Hearne — I look beyond the things I have known
And dreams that I might be free
Time ages swiftly those on its way
And all too soon we've lost today
I can not wait for skies of blue
Or dream so long that life is through
But now I know what I can be and now my heart is flying free

Tina Curtis — Life is a jest, and all things show it. I thought it once, but now I know it. Thanks, mom and dad.

Michael Carey — The time has come to try my wings and though others may see me fall within I can do nothing else but to fly.

Laverne Maggee — The key to success is yourself. Always strive to do your very best. Love ya mom, dad, Kenneth, and Paul . . . and you, too, Crystal R.

Annisha McDowell — Be who you are, not who you're not, because if you keep pretending, your life will be shot.

Russia '86

This year's trip to the Soviet Union was, as always, an exciting experience for the participating students of BAHS. Places visited included Moscow, the old walled city of Novgorod and Leningrad.

While in Moscow, BAHS students visited such places as the Kremlin, Lenin's Mausoleum, the world-famous Moscow Circus and several of the beautiful Metro Stations throughout the city. We then boarded a night train for the old walled city of Novgorod. The train ride, being much like a duty train trip, will be outstanding in many of our fellow students' memories of the trip. The following day consisted of touring the old part of town and a few churches & cathedrals.

From there, it was on to Leningrad by bus. One of our day trips was to the house of the famous Russian painter Repin, which was of interest to many. Later that day we attended a FAREWELL to Russian Winter Festival. We were told later that it wouldn't have been the success it was without the participation of the high-spirited American teens.

Over all, the trip was a large success and we all had a blast! (Some of us more than others!) But coming home was sweet, and McDonalds was still sweeter!

We would like to thank Mr. & Mrs. Schmoll, Mr. Bleum, and Mr. Leonard for all their work and preparation, as well as all the chaperones who came along!

GREEN WEEK '86

On January 30th students from BAHS spent the day exploring Green Week. Held at the ICC Messehalle, Green Week is an annual event that gives Berliners the opportunity to see the latest in international products. Almost 100 countries participated this year including the United States. Each country had a variety of its nation's most popular types of food and drinks. Besides the individual displays, there was livestock, a hall full of exotic plants and flowers, and an array of farming equipment. Most students agreed that our field trip to Green Week was both fun and educational.

Model United Nations

This year's class represented two countries at the Hague and Patrece Cashwell — delegation ambassador for Zimbabwe.

This year's Model United Nations (MUN) class, taught by Mr. Bluem, was a hard working and dedicated one. Preparing a half a year before going to the Hague International, the class studied and debated issues before the real General Assembly. Such issues were that of Apartheid in South Africa, Central America and the illegal Soviet occupation of Afghanistan.

On January 27, the MUN class left for the Hague International in the Netherlands. This year we represented Zimbabwe and the Congo. At the Hague, which is a model of the real UN in New York, we lobbied and tried to pass various resolutions, just like the real UN does. In April, the MUN class leaves for a Mock Security Council debate in Heidelberg which is similar to the debate at the Hague.

Students belonging to the National Junior Honor Society met monthly, sometimes meeting at restaurant, to discuss club news. During the year, NJHS members organized trips around Berlin and planned different activities. To be inaugurated into the society, you must maintain a 3.2 average for the entire year.

This group of seventh graders, sponsored by Mr. Long, roamed the halls this year in search of trash and trouble. Their duty was to monitor the halls during the Junior High lunch period.

No Pain; No Gain

No pain; no gain was a common terminology describing this year's Varsity Wrestling season. But it was the respect, pride and determination of the whole team that pushed this team to its fullest expectations. Nicknamed the pain express, the wrestlers never let down their reputation.

From trying to stay on weight, to the Central European wrestling championships, which signaled the end of the wrestling action for BAHS, this season will be remembered as the best school wrestling effort in 23 years.

Congratulations to all wrestlers on a winning season.

Senior Mike Somsan clearly dominated this year by moving to his second Regional Championships in defense of his European title.

Clinton Douglas (Captain Caveman) is a proven example of what rewards are gained by hard work and determination. Clinton placed second at Regional Championships.

Freshman Pat LeBeau is determined to win his Championship match.

"It's all worth it when the referee raises your arm in victory," as Freshman Pete Johnson proves this statement.

"Ms. Edwards . . . Ms. Edwards . . . MS. EDWARDS, WE NEED HELP!!!" That was the cry that echoed through the Publications classroom all year long. Rough drafts, final copies mixed with photographs and half written articles lay scattered across the tables as deadlines came and went. Most of the staff was new this year but with a lot of dedication and late hours, this year's staff definitely came through.

The Berlin Chapter of the National Honor Society began the school year 1985/86 with the hope of becoming a more involved and vocal part of B.A.H.S. and the Berlin community.

The first projects that the N.H.S. planned include keeping a bulletin board in the front lobby, organizing a college information library, and beginning a peer counseling system at B.A.H.S.

Three new members were inducted into the B.A.H.S. chapter of the N.H.S., and one member moved to Berlin, making the number of members ten. Under the close supervision of sponsor, Ellen Smatlak, N.H.S. set out to prove that a small group can make a difference in our school.

UP WHERE WE BELONG

Who knows what tomorrow brings in a world
 Few hearts survive.
 All I know is the way I feel.
 When it's real I keep it alive.
 The road is long.
 There are mountains in our way.
 But we climb a step every day.
 Love lift us up where we belong.
 Where the eagles fly on a mountain high.
 Love lift us up where we belong.
 Life's you and I alive today.
 Love lift us up where we belong.
 Where the eagles fly on a mountain high.
 Love lift us up where we belong.
 Far from the world we know,
 Where the clean winds blow.

YEARBOOK ASSEMBLY

The pep assembly for this year's yearbook was definitely spirited. The publications staff put together a Senior class reunion which took place in the year 2006. The skill was followed by the film "We Can Make a Difference."

Yearbook sales totaled 4,268 dollars; 138 copies were sold right away and approximately 248 commitment cards were signed, the goal being 500 yearbooks.

This year's annual is expected to be a complete success, and it was.

SPRIT WEEK ARRIVES AT BAHIS

Spirit week arrived at BAHIS on October 22 and kept going through Homecoming Weekend. Rather than following tradition by having a full five days of spirit, the student council executive board decided to compact spirit week into three fun-filled days.

Spirit week began with Wednesday being "carnival day" chosen by the seventh and eighth grades. On this day, spirit-ed students dressed up in the clothing of whatever pastimes they chose. The day ended with the traditional student/faculty relayball game.

Thursday was lunch day at BAHIS as chosen by the sixth and seventh grades. Students came dressed in their favorite lunch items. Thursday was topped off by a mini-Olympics. Classes competed in various unorthodox, semi-athletic events.

Friday saw the end to spirit week, with a junior and senior theme of punk day. Punk day brought out some strange new styles in those daring students who dressed out. The school day ended with the annual premier pull football game in which the student body sat back and watched the junior and senior girls battle it out on the football field, while the junior and senior guys cheered. By Tom Carey

Stephanie Fuss — "So many people seem destined to settle for something small but I won't rest until I know I've got it. So don't ask me where I am going, just listen when I'm gone and far away you'll hear me singing softly to the dawn . . ."

Diane Sams — "Remember everyone not with a tear in your eye, but enduring friendship from afar. And a growing smile across the sky."

Shawn Bingham — "I won't grow up.
I don't want to go to school
Just to learn to be a puppet
And obey the golden rule."

Katherine Young — "Our yesterdays are seeds from which the flowers of our tomorrows will grow, making friendships blossom forever."

Pat Guzik — "Life is an endless series of games,
sometimes you win, sometimes you lose.
But the only way to finish first,
Is to play by your own set of rules."

Malcolm Thompson "You only get out of life what you put in to it." Eddie Cottrill "Has High School really ended or are they playing with our minds?" Diana Bartholomew

"The time has come
To try my wings
And even though it seems at any Moment I could fall,
I feel the most Amazing things.

The things you can't imagine if You've never flown at all."

Mark Abrams "It ain't a party at all till something breaks!"

Jim Long "Look around you . . . appreciate what you have, eny none, love all and, only then, will you discover how truly fortunate you are." Lisa Mrozinski "They call it Burnout Factor. Somebody's gonna get hurt trying to have some fun. The papers are gonna say we're crazy, but no matter what they say, we know we're gonna rock all night, gonna rock all day!" Michele VanDam "The world that dries within me is like a puzzle . . . made up of feelings and ideas and emotions all mine to fit together as I choose. And even as I travel through the outside world, I'm always trying to keep in touch with who I am . . . always seeking out the wonders of the quiet world within."

Michael Somsan "There's nothing you can do that can't be done, Nothing you can sing that can't be sung, nothing you can say, but you can learn how to play the game, it's easy.
Nothing you can make that can't be made,
No one you can save that can't be saved,
Nothing you can do, but you can learn how to be you in time.
All you need is belief in yourself, your friends, and, of course, the love from your family. Thank you all for all your support and love — Uncle Bob, Sam, Sac, Oot and especially mom, dad and Mr. Pop. And Tony and Yevonne Knight."

Denise Shoemaker "Those crazy nights I do remember in my youth. I do recall those were the best of times most of all!"

Stephanie Harwick

"We shape our lives not by what we carry but by what we leave behind."

Vickie Long "Live every moment;
Love every day;
'cause life is too wonderful to get wasted away."

Bonnie Esrich "Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is — His good, pleasing and perfect will"

Rickey Klein "Very Nice!"

Michael Madero "Live your life to the fullest."

Ashley Butler "Just when I find out where it is . . . somebody moves it!"

Don Knowles "Accept people for what they are for if you look at yourself you will find you are not perfect either."

Jody Rodriguez "If thou must love me, let it be for naught, But for love's sake only."

Michael Wallize "Everyone says that they can't wait until graduation. You have to be careful, once you are out of school it's just you against the world. Prepare yourself, the world attacks the day after graduation." Richard Gast "Our Father who art in heaven hallowed by Thy name, thy kingdom come Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom the power and the glory, now and forever. Amen." Bruce Carlson "I used to be lost in the shuffle. Now I just shuffle along with the lost." "Lead me not into temptation I can find it myself" Phillip Kent "It is my opinion that every man cheats in his own way, and he is only honest who is not discovered."

Waking up at 4:30 in the morning to take a swim in the pool may seem like an insane thing to do. But for a majority of the BEAR-A-CUDA swim team this is a normal routine. On the other hand the rest of the swimmers choose to go in the afternoon. But when it comes to competing the swimmers come together to make an almost undefeatable team.

Seven Who Flew for All of Us

"Don't let happen what I think just happened."

Over a period of 25 years, Americans had soared into space 55 times and their safe return had come to be taken for granted. An age when most anyone, given a few months training, could go along for a safe ride seemed imminent. Christa McAuliffe was the pioneer and the symbol of this amazing new era of space for Everyman. A high school teacher from New Hampshire, she was to be the first ordinary citizen shot into space, charged with showing millions of watchful schoolchildren how wonderful it could be. She was bringing every American who had ever been taught by a "Mrs. McAuliffe" into this new era with her. It was an era that lasted only 73 seconds.

Disbelief turned to horror as the reality became all too clear: McAuliffe and six astronauts had disappeared in an orange-and-white fireball nine miles above the Atlantic Ocean. So too, had the space shuttle Challenger, the trusted $1.2 billion workhorse on which they had been riding. Transfixed by the terrible sight of the explosion, Americans watched as it was replayed again and again.

CHALLENGER'S LAST FLIGHT

A Nation Mourns

HEAD

The world held its breath during a dizzying procession of terrorist nightmares. Palestinians hijacked TWA flight 847 in June; four PLO men seized an Italian ship in October. In the November hijacking of an Egyptian airliner, 60 were killed. Other disasters were both natural and man-made.

"Three high-intensive grenades were thrown on passengers inside a plane like a 737. It was hell." Egyptair pilot Hani Galal, injured by a hijacker on flight 648, as 60 were fatally wounded at the Malta airport.

"The whole world began to scream. I woke up my daughter, and we ran out to one of the streets around the cemetery. We were able to stay out of danger until they rescued us." — Marina Franco de Huez, describing her escape in Columbia, where a volcanic eruption killed over 25,000.

"If hell exists, it would look like Mexico today." — Raul Tirado Serrano, Mexico City cab driver, after the earthquake that killed thousands.

Quotes from LIFE, January 1986

INES

Long-simmering South Africa erupted in violence, while a volcano, earthquakes, air crashes and famine killed hundreds-of-thousands more. Yet there were also reasons for hope — an unprecedented gush of charity fund-raising, a charismatic new leader in the Kremlin and a summit meeting that held, if not answers, promise.

"There were two or three strong shocks, and cushions flew around me. One chair was on top of me, and I couldn't move. My stomach felt as if it were being torn apart. Gradually I slept . . . I heard men talking, and it was morning." — Yumi Ochiai, 26-year-old assistant purser, recounting the crash of JAL Flight 123 in which 520 died.

"We will survive. We depend on Allah." — Anamul Haq, whose son and daughter were among 12,000 Bangladeshis killed in a cyclone and tidal wave.

"I cannot explain how we are alive. First the entrance wall fell off, and then the other walls fell off. And then we were sliding down, sandwiched between the floor and the ceiling." — Julio Maldonado, survivor of mud slides that killed more than 125 in Puerto Rico.

The Graduating Class of 1986

Our high school years are a time to remember. The good times accompanied by the bad shall never be forgotten. This brief period in our life was a challenging experience of learning, growing, and maturing. Although we are anxious to leave these days behind and go on to bigger and better things, one day we shall look back on our high school memories and realize that even those bad times were not so bad.

As graduation draws near, Seniors, dream of what the future holds for us. Dream big and may all your wishes come true. Good luck.

LETTER FROM THE EDITORS

It has been a busy year. From Spirit Week to Graduation, we of the Publications staff have been hard at work, trying to make this year's annual as good as possible.

Producing a yearbook out of snapshots, class pictures and events is not easy, and far from being a 'one man task.' Fortunately, the whole class was willing to put forth the effort needed to make this yearbook possible.

Along with our thanks to the entire staff, we extend 'special thanks' to our sponsor, Ms. Edwards. Her time, effort, and patience were appreciated more than she may realize. We couldn't have done it without her.

For all of us, recording the year's events was an important undertaking. Hopefully, in years to come, this book will bring back pleasant memories of your high school years. That is the entire purpose of this annual: to remind you of Berlin and of your . . .

'Seasons in the Sun.'

Have a nice life,
