

Any resemblance to Australian swimming star, Shane Gould, is purely coincidental. Donna Holsapple finishes the breast-stroke to take first place during the swimming meet at the Sports Center Pool, Saturday. The AYA team took on the Canadians from Lahr, FRG to win by the impressive margin of 94 points. (Photo by Dale Sharp)

Yanks outswim Canadians

by Jeff Neely

Saturday the Berlin AYA Swimming Team vied with the Canadian team from Lahr, FRG, in a swimming meet at the Sports Center pool. The Berlin team competed with the Lahr team in November of '74. Berlin was edged out of the victory by 10 points. The team trained hard in preparation for a return meet with the Canadians and at 9 a.m. on March 1 the two teams were at it again.

Berlin won the first event setting the pace for the rest of the meet. Of the 32 individual events, Berlin swimmers captured 23 firsts, 19 seconds and 10 thirds. Berlin also won six of the eight relay events.

The outstanding swimmers for the Berlin team were as follows: Greg Dolge, triple winner; Sonia Craig, triple winner; Susan Platt, triple winner; Bryan Storer, quadruple winner; Karla Werner, double winner; Angela Robinson, triple winner; Donna Holsapple, double winner; Kim Torgersen, single winner; Kerry Castillo, single winner.

The final score for the meet proved that the Berlin team was not about to suffer defeat at their home pool. Berlin scored 250 points to Lahr's 156.